Using public transport

Bruges station is located at 3 km. Every 10 minutes, there is a bus from the station. The next bus routes have a stop at 'Boeverbos':

Route 5: Centre - Station - Sint-Andries (Hermitage)

Route 15: Centre - Station - Sint-Andries (De Prange)

Route 52: Bruges -Gistel - Ostend

Route 53: Bruges - Jabbeke

Route 55: Bruges - Leke

The buses leave from the main exit of the station. The stop 'Boeverbos' is situated on 'Gistelsesteenweg' (after passing the supermarkets GB, Brico and Colruyt). There is a park across the street; go into the alley which leads to the park; you will see the Provincial House Boeverbos within walking distance.

To get back to the station, you will have to get off the bus at the back of the station.

By car

From the E40 motorway (towards the coast as well as towards Brussels):

Take exit 8 towards Bruges-Zeebrugge. Follow the N31 Expressway, turn left at the 4th traffic lights. At the roundabout, you go straight ahead (Koning Leopold III-laan). At the lights, go straight ahead again; some 100 metres further, the Provincial House Boeverbos is on your right-hand side.

We recommend to park your car on Parking 03. This free parking place is situated on the other side of the Provincial House Boeverbos, next to the Bowling Stones and the Provincial House Olympia. At the end of the car park there is a footway leading towards the Provincial House, within 5 minutes of walking distance. Walk towards the fountains and follow the signs 'ingang bezoekers'. There's the building's main entrance. Please report to the front desk on arrival, where you will be referred to the right location.
