

08:30	Welcome coffee & registration	Foyer (1 st floor)
	Mounting of posters	Ground floor
09:00	Official welcome Jan Mees	Council chamber
09:05	Visions on the hidden face of the Earth: perspective of the explorer - objective of the coach Jean-Pierre Henriet	Council chamber
10:00	Floating seaweed as a vector for traveling organisms Sofie Vandendriessche	Council chamber
10:25	Hydraulic design of coastal structures: inventing the world on a small scale Marc Willems	Council chamber
10:50	Coffee break	Foyer (1 st floor)
11:20	Occurrence of hormones in the Scheldt Estuary: an analytical challenge! Herlinde Noppe	Council chamber
11:45	From data to quota in fisheries research Wim Demaré	Council chamber
12:10	Lunch	Foyer (1 st floor)
13:00	Introduction to the afternoon programme and presentation of 'Navigating the Future III' Jan Mees	Council chamber
13:10	Signals and scenarios of climate change in European seas Katja Philippart	Council chamber
13:50	Presentation of the Marine Board-ESF Position Paper 'Climate Change Impacts on the European Marine and Coastal Environment' to Koen Verlaeckt, Head of Cabinet Science and Innovation of Fientje Moerman, Vice-Minister-President of the Flemish Government and Flemish Minister of Economy, Enterprise, Science, Innovation and Foreign Trade	Council chamber
14:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Poster presentations and competition ▪ Demonstrations of marine science activities by the Flanders Marine Data and Information Centre (VMDC) and others ▪ Photo contest 	Ground floor
15:45	Presentations by the two winners of the 'VLIZ Thesis Award Marine Sciences 2006' and by the winner of the 'VLIZ North Sea Award 2006' <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Cryptic genetic diversity in the genus Mesopodopsis (Crustacea, Mysidacea) Katrien Broekaert ▪ Generation of irregular long and short crested waves in a numerical model for wave propagation: implementation, validation and application Robby Caspeele ▪ Living with gulls – Trading of food and predation in the Sandwich Tern Sterna sandvicensis Eric Stienen 	Council chamber
16:25	Presentation of the awards, including awards for the best posters and winners of the photo contest	Council chamber
16:45	Reception	Ground floor