Goals: Data extraction for the systematic review. Developing a matrix relating floodplain management measures to ecosystem services. Organizing the working process in the case study.

Wednesday, November 7th 2012, 14:00 – 21:30

14:00 – 14:30	Welcome & Introduction: status quo of the systematic review, further steps & goals for the workshop (Stefan Schindler)
14:30 – 14:50	Introduction of participants
14:50 – 16:00	Data extraction for the systematic review on the basis of an example (S. Schindler)
16:00-17:00	meal
17:20 – 18:40	“Hands-on”: extracting data of papers in break-out groups
18:40 – 19:00	Coffee &amp; tea break
19:00 – 20:00	Plenary discussion: experiences from the “hands-on”-section

Thursday, November 8th 2012, 9:00 – 21:30

9:00 - 9:45	Presentation on ecosystem services (ESS) and on “capacity matrices” to link biotopes and processes to ESS (Anna Hermann, S. Schindler)
9:45 – 10:15	break-out groups: 1) list of floodplain management measures; 2) list of ESS
10:15-10:30	Coffee &amp; tea break
10:30 – 11:30	Plenary discussion about the matrix-frame
11:30 – 12:30	Break-out groups: relating floodplain management measures to ESS
12:30 -13:30	lunch
13:30 – 16:30	field trip: the Danube floodplains and the Donau-Auen National Park
17:00 - 19:00	evaluation of the process - a facilitated group discussion

Friday, November 9th 2012, 9:00 – 13:00

9:00 – 9:15	Brief summary of the previous workshop-results and goals for today
9:15 – 11:15	Break-out groups: relating floodplain management measures to ESS
11:15 – 11:30	Coffee &amp; tea break
11:30 – 13:00	Further steps and how to share the work
